

SADDLERS @ CROSS KEYS HOTEL

SADDLERS RESTAURANT @ THE KEYS IS OPEN FROM 5PM - 8PM DAILY All dietaries will be catered for - Please inform your server of any dietaries prior to ordering your food.

Saddlers Restaurant at the Keys takes its name from the hotels historical links with horses. Since the building's standing in 1769, many of its earliest owners ran it as a coach house. After the rise of the railway coach houses were on the wane; however, the hotel retained its equestrian links and many racehorses were housed in the hotels stables ahead of race days.

Our current owners- the Ballantyne family- are keen to preserve these links with the hotel's past but also to re-establish the hotel as the social hub of the town, for which it was known as over these centuries.

Our Head Chef, Scott Swift, has worked in many iconic hotels before joining us here in Kelso, namely Turnberry, Carnoustie, Dunkeld, and the Fairmont St Andrews. With over twenty years of culinary experience behind him, Scott's aim is to produce high quality meals, all made in-house from the freshest ingredients.
